

“Implications of the Elections in V4 Countries 2010 – Internal and External Challenges“

Discussion and book presentation

Wednesday 30th March, 16:30-18:00

Mirror Hall, Czernin Palace
Loretánské náměstí 5, Praha 1

The 2010 parliamentary elections in Hungary, Czech Republic, and Slovakia, together with the early presidential vote in Poland present an important milestone not only in the developments of the individual states, but also in the regional and European context. Implications of the elections as well as internal and external challenges will be discussed.

Chair: Grigorij Mesežnikov, Institute for Public Affairs, Bratislava

Input: Martin Bútor, Institute for Public Affairs, Bratislava

Comments:

Slovakia - Olga Gyárfášová, Institute for Public Affairs, Bratislava

Poland - Jacek Kucharczyk, Institute of Public Affairs, Warsaw

Czech Republic - Václav Nekvapil, CEC Government Relations, Prague

Hungary - Zoltán Pogátsa, Central European University, Budapest

Discussion

18:00 Reception – Host: The Visegrad Fund

RSVP: Due to strict entrance security procedures at the MFA building and the limited number of seats in the conference room, we kindly ask you to register to the event via the e-mail address registrace@iir.cz by Sunday 27th March 2011 at the latest.

On Wednesday 30th, the entrance to the Czernin Palace will be opened from 16:00.